

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

LIKES INFANTILE PLAQUE CURE

Infantile paralysis serum developed by Dr. John W. Nuzum, pathologist at the County hospital, has been used with success, says Warden

Clayton F. Smith. Smith cited several instances in which this serum, made from one monkey, twenty thirty rabbits and mice and a sheep, worked cures.